At a meeting of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society held at Friends meeting house 9th month 7th 1911.

Six members were present.

The minutes of the last meting were read also a letter from the President which we decided to have read again and is as follows;- To the Missionary Circle. I thought you might like to hear what was done at the meeting of the Foreign Missionary Committee at Lynn as concerns the work at Ramallah. Our dear friend, Alice Jones, who was to have gone back this Fall is unexpectedly detained at home, on account of the health of her father and mother. It was then a question who should take her place. Just then, Edna Metcalf, of Worcester, who had been interested in the Missionary work from her childhood offered to go in her place. Edna Metcalf has long felt that the Lord would have her devote herself to missionary service, but expected to go to India, where her great aunt was the first Friends' woman missionary. Now she felt that the work in Ramallah needed her and her sweet young face was radiant as she told us how she had been led to this decision. She had been examining the sailings of steamers and it seemed imperative that she must go by September 6th from New York. It has hurried and worried us very much and it was also short notice for her to prepare for a five years absence from her home. Her father and mother were both at Lynn. They could hardly bear to part with her and the tears were very near their eyes as they spoke of what it meant to them, but they were all very brave and did it "for the love of Jesus."

Do you know, I tried, while I was making my dollies outfits - to have my mind and heart heart in the right frame and not to set a stitch grudgingly! - I trust the dear Lord will bless every one who has done anything in this dear service. Sadie Holmes says she wishes we could see the faces of the little folks when they receive the gifts that we have joined in giving.

No business to come before the meeting we adjourned to meet 10th month 5th 1911. D.v. the Lord permit.

Report for 1926-1927.

Nov. 4-1926 A meeting for organization was held at the Meeting House.

Mary Leonard for the Nominating Committee reported the same officers as last year. Recommendation was approved and the following officers will serve the coming year:

Agnes Howland, President
Elizabeth T. Price, Vice-President
Emma M. Almy Secy.—Treas.

Plans for the years work and a Food Sale to be held in Supper Room Nov. 15 were talked over, after this discussion tea was served.

Ten other meetings were held during the winter with an average attendance of 11.5 One of these meetings was held in the Barclay Room when Ellen Winslow was our guest. She told us of Palestine, the country, flowers homes and people (especially the women) the great work the Friends' Mission has done in Ram Allah. She showed beautiful work done by the women and girls, many pictures and post-cards of the Ram Allah Mission, which through Susan Thompson we all learned to love and feel an ownership.

At one meeting letters from Africa and Jamaica Cuba and Ram Allah were read. From our Funds we sent to each ~~Africa~~, and Jamaica Mission the sum of $10.- to Ram Allah $25.- all going through the United Budget. also $5 to the Mississippi Flood Fund. Letters of thanks were recein from Afrin and Jamaica.

An appeal through George R. Wood for help for Indian Mission in Montana and the Tennessee Mountain Mission was read and in consequence the members in May sent a barrel packed full of useful articles, such as towels, pillow slips, bureau covers, bags and various other articles and a number of books from Geo R. Wood, books proved heavy and expensive things to send.

Our Food Sale proved a success our total receipts being $73.30

Expenses 8.80 64.50 Total.

Through the winter We made some Convalescent jackets for the Childrens' Ward at St. Lukes Hospital also 11,192 Surgical dressings. I am quite sure Hannah Sherman folded at least half of these and Elizabeth Price took them from the Hospital returning the finished product - we thank her for doing this.

After putting up our work the latter part of the afternoon, we have enjoyed our cup of tea and the social half hour which went with it.

$4.35. Bank $80.15. Total = $197.30
1501 flats were folded for St. Lukes'
Hospital at the meetings. Mrs. Hm.
Emery folded 270 and Adaline Smith
Hood at home making a total of 5821.
We have had ten meetings with an average attendence of twelve.
After putting up our work for the afternoon we have enjoyed a social half hour with tea.
During the meetings our president read a book entitled "Quare Women" of the Kentucky Mountains.
The ladies of our society have been very faithful in sewing for the needy
this winter.
We regret our society has lost two members by death Fredrika Tolen and Frannie Pease.

Mary Emma Howland was made an honorary member. She has been very faithful at home making baby puffs. The activities of our society have extended into the summer with three picnics held at Agnes Howland's Farm, Sarah Coggeshall's "The Meadows" and Olive Whitmarsh at Bay View. Most of us availed ourselves of the kind invitation and a very enjoyable time was spent.

Respectfully submitted,
Adelaide R. Smith, Secy.

Reports for 1931 - 1932.

Oct. 14, 1931 The annual meeting of the Friends Missionary Society was held at Grace Lasell's. Reports of the Treasurer were read and aproved. The Nominating Committee reported the following list of officers for the coming year - Sarah Coggeshall President. Elizabeth Price, Vice President, Adaline Smith, Secretary + Treasurer. Cutting Committee. Grace Lasell + Adaline Smith - Aproved - 3 members being present. Plans were formed for a sale of jellies, Aprons, fancy articles, food, candy and a white elephant table to be held once a month at the Barclay to raise money for the coming year. One table of articles were for sale each month, each member doing her share to make it a success. The depression still continues, so the call is urgent for clothing for the destitute children.

The American Service Committee of Phila. Penn. has taken over the program for feeding and clothing the undernourished children of the miners of W. Virginia + Kentucky, also feeding and clothing as many adults as funds allow. Some of the miners have not received any work for several years as some of the mines have been abandoned and they are in a pitiful plight. Our society is doing its share towards helping in this good work.

Eleven boxes of new and used clothing and other useful articles were sent to the Amer. S. Com., one box of shoes containing wire nails, one box of children's toys, and one box of 100 lbs. of soap. The Tennessee Mountaineers received three boxes of new and used clothing and other useful articles.

Letters of acknowledgement from the A. S. Com. have been read to our resident from Ruth Osborne, and Filipino school Children's.

Alena Allen distributed a coat, dress and two baby jackets to a needy family in the city. Ten diapers were sent to the Instructive Nursing Asso.

Our society has given ten dollars to the Chinese Sufferers, ten dollars to Friendville Academy, Tenn., five dollars to Esther Baird, ten dollars towards Edna Ray's support during her illness, twenty-five dollars to Ram Allah, ten dollars each to Jamaica and East African Missions, five dollars towards hymnals for our meeting house, four dollars towards Good Friday Womens Meeting and ten dollars to Khaili Total.

The following articles have been made during the year. Thirteen children's dresses, six baby dresses, eight boys undersuits, five boys trousers, four boys blouses, eleven bloomers, one hundred and seven diapers, seven knit afghans, eight muffs, eighteen baby caps, one baby coat, five sweaters, four knit jackets, one pair five socks and seven nightties.

2463 flats were folded in the meetings for St. Lukes Hospital (making a total of 7022) Edaline Smith folded 4359 at home and Mrs. Emery folded 200. They were sent to the hospital thro kindness of Elizabeth Price and Helen Coggeshall. Mrs. Emery kindly donated four tennis Fairy Soaps and Paul Bartlett, Emma Almy and Sarah Coggeshall seven. These garments were Mary Emma Howland eight nightgowns and Sarah Coggeshall one pair of five socks.

1931
7-12-31 Our society entertained Esther Baird at a tea lunch held at the Meeting House, which was served. After lunch Esther Baird gave an interesting talk of her work and experiences in India as a missionary having served forty years in that field.

John L. and Agnes Howland invited us to come to "The Farm" for a picnic. Everyone availed herself of the kind invitation and a very enjoyable time was spent.

Later in the summer Mary Leonard invited us to her home in the city for a box lunch on her porch. Hot cocoa was served by the hostess and a happy afternoon was spent.

On the first being Sarah Coggeshall's 80th birthday our society presented her with flowers. We all are very sorry to have her resign as she has been a most efficient worker and planner.

1932
Oct. 24. Twenty members met at Sarah Coggeshall to hear Ellen Hinshaw who gave an interesting talk on the Women's Missionary Union Conference held at Wilmington, Ohio. Refreshments were served. Geo. R. Hoag and John N. Cleveland showed their interest by attending this meeting. (Being members.)

Twenty one meetings were held during the year with an average attendance of fourteen. Four of these were extra meetings as the call for clothing was been very urgent. After each meeting a social half hour has been spent with tea and refreshments served by the hostess.

Four new members have been added to our circle- Harriet Damon, Mercy Baker Dora Butler, and Mrs. Herbert King.

Money raised during the year amounted to $124.69. The mite box contained $11.0 Patch apron $13.21 and sale $99.96. Receipts amounted to $245.93 expenditures $160.10 leave $85.47 Cash on hand 30¢

I think all the members will agree with me that it is a privilege to belong to a society which is able to accomplish so much worth while work during the year.

Respectfully submitted.
Adaline R. Smith, Secretary

which brought such splendid results was greatly appreciated.
At a party given the members by the officers of our society, the dollars were brought in together with a poem telling how the dollars were earned, which disclosed hidden talent undreamed of.
For various reasons we have had only three meetings this last summer against nine during June and July last year. I am sure you will recall with pleasure the lovely beds of phlox and attractive surroundings which made such a charming setting for Elizabeth Bates' garden party - and what a surprise we had! We expected coffee — but hot clam chowder and ice cream exceeded our wildest expectations. Alice Whitmarsh's picnic at Bay View was a large one and the evening delightful with the story telling and the fire place sending out warmth and cheer glow. This flaying fire started a line of thought with Thos. Tifft followed by a brief talk by Oscar Watson about his recent trip north. Geo. Hood ended the evening with some of his good stories. The last picnic with Helen Hopkins and Emma Flagg was the watermelon party at Flagg again bringing two or three of his finest melons.

Our friends Mr. Tifft — Oscar Watson Geo. Hood and Wallace Young entertained us in their own delightful way. The evening all ended a story for Sec. How to supply.

These happy get to gethers stimulate the whole social atmosphere of our meeting.
May God bless us as we work for Him.

Alice T. Gardner Sec'y.

1934-35.

The annual meeting of the Womens Missionary Society was held at the home of Alice Gardner Nov. 7th 1934.
Twenty four were present.
The reports of the Treas. and Sec'y were read and approved.
It was decided to subscribe for the Missionary Advocate and Alice Howard Macomber kindly consented to receive it each month to us.
A member with a "concern" for the fifth day evening meeting suggested that the members bring a basket supper to remain for sewing and, through the meeting for worship.
This was approved.
The hostess served a Fish Tea.
Nov. 22nd First Meeting for sewing, should be tasted - the work will be for the Welfare Society - flats folded.
Voted to send $5.00 to Friendsville Academy and $10.00 to Friends Service (present - 15 for supper

The annual meeting of the Womens' Mission-ionary Society was held Nov. 5th at the home
the President Olive Whitmarsh — nine were present. The reports of the Sec'y and reas. were read and approved.
t was voted not to send the usual to Lincoln Academy, but to crease the amount sent to Ed Breillin to $10.00. It was decided to old our Meetings at the homes of he members and that the serving refreshments be optional — if served imited to crackers and tea.
ur president served sandwiches and before the meeting adjourned until the irst meeting for sewing Nov 20th Wednesday
he chosen day.
ov. 20 the society met to sew with Agnes Howe and — 10 attended. The members voted to hange the name of the society so as to broaden their field of work and be able to use the money not only to Missions but to any worthy object but mainly to assist the meeting — a name for the society to be brought in at next meeting by each member and one chosen. The hostess served grape juice and crackers. Pajamas for children were begun for the Welfare.

Dec. 11th The Society met with Alice Gardner seven present. Among the names suggested for the Society the one Mary Leonard sent in was chosen — The Friends Guild — so hereafter the Missionary Society will be known as The Friends Guild.

" 31 " " " " Bertha Mostrom 15 "

April 22 " " " with Sarah Gifford 14 pres

This last meeting dollars earned brought in.

"The Friends Guild"

The name chosen in Dec. for Society not being quite to the point" it was suggested by Alice Gardner that it be renamed, "Red Cross Aid and Missionary Society" – the vote in favor was unanimous. Ten meetings have been held with an average attendance of ten. 1000 flats folded for St Lukes Hospital and 500 for Sol d'Mar. Della Butler gave a baby jacket which was given to the Welfare also 12 sacks and 5 baby blankets. Bazaars made for Welfare Society

June 25 our beloved member and friend Sarah Coggeshall "fell asleep beneath the kiss divine She awaked and rose into that world of love Of which the temporal is but the sign, A window and a token from above. The Father kissed her and she slept in peace. We bade her through our tears one long farewell But she has anchored where the billows cease In light too pure for mortal tongue to tell, With Him who loved her first and loved her best, In whose sweet Presence ends our earthly quest. We can say with the poet "Thanks be to God that such have lived though they be with us no more."

Aug. 7th We held our first picnic with Osea and Bertha Mostrom at Pinehurst, Wareham. We all enjoyed the peacefulness which was so restful and our supper on the beach where a fire was provided for roasting Frankfurts. 32 were present.

Aug. 21–30 were present at a picnic held at Alvano Goddards, Drift Rd. Westport. Some of us took the walk through the woods accompanied by the white kitten and Buttercup the cow and all enjoyed our supper in the yard around the fire where frankfurts, bacon hamburg patties and marshmallows were roa

Sept. 4th Mr. & Mrs. Washburn entertained us at their delightful summer home in Westport. 48 attend Tables were set in the yard and our hostess served baked beans, brown bread, sweet corn, cake and coffee.

Sept. 11th 31 attended the picnic at Olive Whitmars Bay View and all seemed to have a very happy time. The fog which had prevailed for a few days suddenly c P. M. disappeared completely and again we had th sun and blue sky which gave us perfect weath to be at the beach.

Ten meetings for sewing held and dur ing those meetings 1500 flats were fold ed for Soldiers Hospital and 1000 for St Lukes. 14 sheets made for Instructi on in association - 12 pajamas for children and 4 baby blankets.
The last meeting of the season was held with our President Olive Hitman who served a Lido Tea. The nominating committee Mary Leonard and did not bring in a name for President for ensuing yea

and no one present being willing t
assume the duty of this office Oli Whitmash reluctantly consented to serve another year; the officers cho
were Olive Whitmash President

cutting committee.
Two Clive Teas and five picnic
were held the first picnic Aug. 10th Oscar & Bertha Ingstrom at their new home Pinehurst Beach Wareham. 4 attended and we all enjoyed looking ov their delightful home we entertained o selves in various ways some went for a walk through the woods - s
for a row on the river while others s on the porch & in the yard enjoyin the view and sunshine. We had a a good time eating our supers dow on the beach where 3 fires were burning for those who wanted roas rankfurts. Our hostess and family serve ffee, punch and watermelon. A large basket f canned foods was presented the ostess by Thos. Riff who entertain ed after supper with his usual good tories. On the handle of the basket as tied a can opener and a verse by

rs. Ray Baker which read —
"In case of Emergency Shell we hope is most handy
o this assortment can find a place there.
incerest good will and affection are ours,
nd we say it with cans instead of with lowers". Oscar Nelson responded and ead one of George Woods favorite stories ound in a book given him by his family.
e have been deeply saddened by the assing from our midst of this much loved member, Geo. P. Wood — we have issed his stories at our picnics nd his quiet cheery presence at all ur gatherings — not only social but n our meetings of Lodgeship — we can ay with the poet "Thanks be to God that such have lived though they "is" with us no more"!

The next picnic (Sept. 18th) was held at the Coggeshall cottage at The Meadows where we had our usual good time with 33, in attendance to eat Wally's Allens sweet watermelon. Elizabeth Rice could not attend but sent a message of love - she said it with ice-cream.
Sept 25th Della Butler entertained us at Lone Studio, Marion - 33 sat around the huge fire-place with its blazing logs and although it "was" raining outside and dreary, within all was bright and cheery. After supper we enjoyed Thos. Tripp, Oscar Mosbrook and Helen Coggeshall as they reminisced about Lone Studio and surrounding Mrs. Hudson gave us some historical facts then Rachel Moulton, whom we are glad to have with us again
told us interestingly of her voyage
home from China. Mr. and Mrs

Washburn invited us over to their country home in Westport Oct. 4th. We were entertained in the most unique place - series of chicken coops remodeled into the most charming summer house, everything for convenience and comfort was there even to a large fire place where logs were kept burning. Our hostess served coffee-sandwiches cake and apples. Our host entertained with moving pictures; some personages of Westport in winter and a trip to Cuba. 31 present at our last picnic Oct. 22 with the Herbert Kings - where Elizabeth King proved beyond a doubt that she knew how to make clam chowder; she also served coffee, cake and fruit. Three times her guests applauded in appreciation. Mr. King gave a historical talk about the home. King, Oct. 24 our society held a fall of food, and aprons made by members - also a White Elephant table. The results exceeded our wildest expectations.

The past year has been a most successful one and as we stand on the threshold of a new one, we can look forward with courage to the work that lies ahead—if we can—the loyal and generous co-operation of our members and friends.

Respectfully Submitted,
Alice J. Gardner Secy.

The picnic planned for Sept. 29th to be helded at William Haings summer home at Russells Mills was canceled because of cold weather and held in the Barclay room of Meeting House. 31 attended and a very social time was enjoyed. Thos. Tripp told many amusing stories and Oscar Mostrom, Alvano Goddard William Emery, Herbert Haing, Helen Coggeshall Clara Howland, Agnes Howland and Alice Gardner added much to the evenings fun with the stories they contributed.

As we stand upon the theshold of two years our backward look can be one of satisfaction for all that we have accomplished — the forward look holds a challenge — because of our double object to work for; we know there is much to achieve but with God's help and the loyal support of our members and friends we shall attain our goal.
